

Michael Smith Foundation PRIDoC 2022 Indigenous Medical Student Grant

Through the generosity of The Michael Smith Foundation, we are pleased to announce a $2,000.00 (two thousand dollars) grant for an Indigenous Medical Student to attend PRIDoC July 10-15, 2022 in Vancouver B.C. PRIDoC 2022 is an Indigenous-led space for Indigenous physicians, residents and medical students, health researchers, health professionals and allies. We gather around shared issues of concern related to the health and wellness of the many Indigenous communities and nations throughout the Pacific Region.

Requirements

- Identify as Indigenous
- IPAC member in good standing <https://www.ipac-amac.ca/membership>
- Currently enrolled in a medical school in Canada
- Attend and fully participate in the conference Monday July 11 to Friday July 15, 2022
- Submit a thank you letter, outlining the benefits of attending PRIDoC 2020 by July 31, 2022.

The Fine Print

This grant may or may not cover the total costs associated with attending PRIDoC 2020. It is the responsibility of the grant recipient to cover any additional costs. The funds must first be used for PRIDoC registration $446.25 (inc GST), leaving $1,553.75 for travel and accommodation. Snacks and meals are included in the PRIDoC 2020 registration fee from the Monday July 11 Student Track breakfast to Friday July 15 lunch, but not including dinner Wednesday July 13. Accommodation, if needed, will be at the Sheraton Wall Centre at $239/night plus taxes. We recommend sharing a room with another student to reduce your costs. If you need assistance finding a roommate, we are happy to help.

IPAC will pay the registration fee and accommodation (if needed) from the grant funds directly. The student will send IPAC a copy of their flight receipt and IPAC will reimburse the student with any remaining grant funds. Flights, if needed, must be booked by April 30, 2022.
